BRONTE — Hermleigh's Cardinals scrapped District 4-B favorite Bronte all the way Friday night before falling 12-0 to a second half rally by hosts.

Cardinal quarterback ROBERT Chorn scored the first touchdown on a three yard ke for the Hermleigh drive in the second quarter. Tailback Mike Peter was thumped down shy of doublestripes when he attempted to swing around right on the try for conversion point.

Bronte took the lead with seconds remaining in the first half as quarterback D Glenn hit the right end, Co in the end zone with an 11-pass. Fullback McCutchins were over left tackle for Her two bonus points.

Hermleigh Drops District Tilt

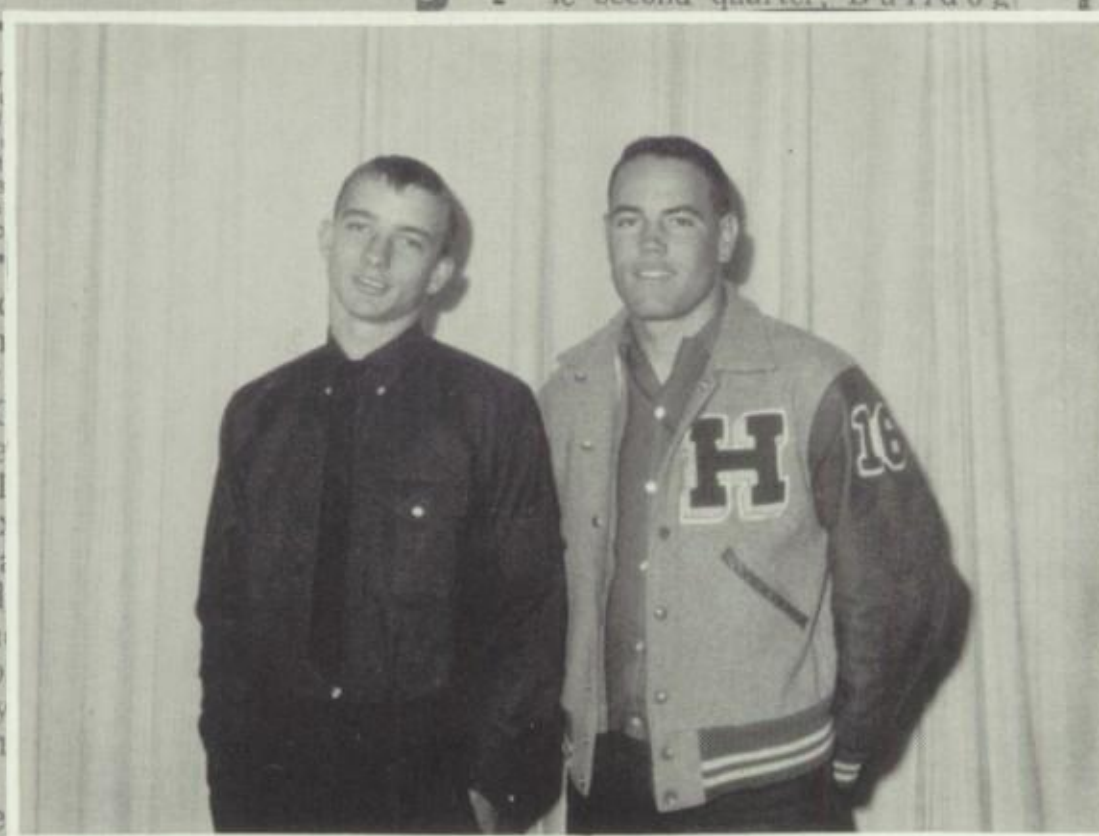

FORSAN — Hermleigh Cardinals dropped their first conference game of the season Friday night at Forsan when the Buffaloes came from behind in the fourth quarter with two eight-pointers and a victory.

Hermleigh mounted a drive in the first period that ended in tailback Mike Pegerson ed around right end from yards out. Danny Peterson, back, then tried the left for the conversion attempt was successful.

Two quarters of scoreless ball ended when Forsan halfback Clayton McKinnon banged through to score on a one yard age up the middle. Johnny an supplied the two extra points.

Working out of a tie situation, Forsan regrouped and began another scoring march that produced the necessary points when back Larry Callihan raced yards around is right end the touchdown.
